

Inground Plate Guide

Step 1:

Attach anchor poles to base plate with two nuts and a spring washer making sure to have a couple inches of thread above the base plate (Closer photo below)

Step 2:

Lower base plate and anchor poles into cement making sure to have the base plate level with the ground.

Step 3:

Allow cement to completely dry and harden before attaching your main pole to the thread then bolt down with the dome nuts shown.